Bad Condition of Affairs in Louisiana.

CHICAGO Sept. 9—The Tribune's New Orleans [illegible] says a gentleman who has been traveling in north Louisiana will publish in the Republican the result of his observations. Fraud Suspected in the Arkansas Election.

The Inter Ocean's Little Rock special says the excitement caused by the delay of the county clerk in canvassing the vote of this county had become so great that on Friday night the clerk commenced the count. The conviction is general that glaring frauds have been perpetrated and that a fair election and count would give the Republicans a majority in the county of 800. The canvass of the clerk excludes three Republican townships. The Democratic county ticket is elected except treasurer and assessor. The townships excluded were thrown out on account of irregularities committed by Democratic judges. The election frauds are perfectly patent and acknowledged.

The Indians taking refuge in a washout drove him back into the ranch where he sat 18 hours with his gun across his knees and his cartridges in easy reach, determined to sell his life dearly if again attacked. Parties have gone with a conveyance from Sidney to bring him in and it is hoped the wound may not prove fatal. Recruits arrived here yesterday.

Boss Tweed—His Early Delivery Expected.

No information has yet reached the State Department concerning the capture of Tweed. Undoubtedly a request was made for his arrest and delivery and the officials believe he will be delivered, if ever captured in Spain, in return for similar action taken by this government at various times, and especially in the case of Arguailles in 1864. He was a Spanish officer on duty in Cuba, and having captured a cargo of slaves which had been brought from Africa, was supposed to have freed them in accordance with the law. He however had sent them into the interior where they were sold and Arguailles escaped to New York with the proceeds. On his return to Cuba he was convicted of the offense and executed.

Another Account of the Charleston Riots.

CHICAGO Sept 9—The Tribune's Washington dispatches from Charleston places the riot in a different light. It was precipitated by the Democrats demanding half time at the Republican meetings as they have successfully done in other parts of the State. The Republicans refused to accede to this when the white line mob fired on them. The Republicans determined to stand firm and play that game. This resulted in killing several Democrats.

Hawaiian Treaty not yet in Force.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—The Secretary of the Treasury in reply to the attorney of Williams, Blanchard & Co of San Francisco who made application for the admission of sugar in bond and cargoes now on the way to that city from the Hawaiian Islands free of duty says: First, that the fifth article of the treaty expressly provides it shall not take effect until a law to carry it into effect shall have been passed by Congress; second, that concurrent action on the part of the two governments is requisite in the establishment of the rules, regulations and conditions for the protection of the revenue in carrying out the provisions of the treaty; third, that by act of Congress to carry into effect the convention on the treaty aforesaid the President of the United States is authorized on receipt of satisfactory evidence that the legislature of the Hawaiian Islands has passed laws on their part to give full effect to the provisions of the treaty, and not before, to issue his proclamation declaring he has such evidence, and thereupon from the date of such proclamation the articles named in the act shall be admitted free of duty. It would seem therefore that no power is vested in the President, or in the Secretary of the Treasury, either by the treaty itself or by the act of Congress requisite to carry into effect, whereby the privileges to be exercised under it can be made to have a retroactive effect as to importations of any date prior to the issuing of the President's proclamation. It is therefore impracticable for this department to insert, even with the consent of the President and of the Hawaiian government, any clause in the regulations to be issued under the treaty which could in any manner protect importations heretofore made or which may arrive before the proclamation above referred to shall have been issued. It may be added, however, that importers of merchandise now in bond or which may hereafter arrive, desiring to withdraw the same, may do so and at the same time preserve any real or supposed rights claimed by them under said treaty by paying the duties as assessed under protest to the collector and then appeal from his decision to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Hawaiian Treaty Ratified.

WASHINGTON Sept 9—The President issued a proclamation to day ratifying the treaty between the United States and the Hawaiian Islands.

THE PEACE COMMISSION.

Council with Red Cloud and Other Distinguished Sioux—Propositions of the Government.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, Neb, Sept 8, via FORT LARAMIE, Wy, Sept 9—The Indian commission which arrived here Wednesday held their first council yesterday afternoon, about 150 Indians, including Red Cloud, Red Dog, Old Man Afraid of His Horses, his Son, Standing Bull (Ogallalla Sioux) being present. In conversation with members of the commission before the council the Indians expressed [illegible] at their arrival, some of them saying to Dr Daniels of the commission, their old agent, "I shall [illegible] to my father if you don't take pity on me." The Indians are in excellent mood for treaty. Billy Garnet, Bill Rowland, Leon Pallardy and Todd Randall acted as assistant interpreters to Rev Hinman. Bishop Whipple offered prayer. Then the following propositions were read by Col Manypenny, chairman, and interpreted to the Indians:

First—They shall relinquish all claims to that part of their reservation lying west of the 103d meridian and that the western boundary of said reservation shall commence at the intersection of the 103d meridian with the northern boundary of Nebraska, thence northerly along said meridian to its intersection with south fork of Cheyenne river, thence down said stream to its intersection with north fork of Cheyenne river to said 103d meridian, thence north along said meridian to south branch of Cannon Ball river to Cedar creek, thence down said stream to Missouri river, and also relinquish all claim to all country outside present limits of their reservation, and that article 16 of the treaty of 1868 is hereby abrogated.

Second—They shall grant the right of way over said reservation for wagon or other roads from convenient and accessible points on the Missouri river to that portion of the reservation which is to be ceded, not more than three in number, to be designated hereafter by the President of the United States, and they shall permit the construction and free unobstructed use of such roads and free navigation of the Missouri river.

Third—They shall receive all annuities provided by the Treasury and all subsistence supplies which may be provided for them at such points and places on said reservation and in vicinity of the Missouri river as the President may designate.

Fourth—And, whereas Congress has provided by law that no appropriation shall be made hereafter for said Indians until some plan shall be devised which shall look to their becoming self supporting, and whereas, there is no country within the limits of their present reservation suited for such purpose, and whereas it is the design of the President of the United States to aid in the fullest manner possible their progress in civilization, therefore said Indians shall agree to submit themselves to such beneficent plans as the government may provide for them in the selection of a country suitable to become their permanent home where they may live like white men. The President believes the only country where they can hope for permanent improvement is in the Indian Territory. Inasmuch as the removal of the Indians to the Missouri river will necessarily be temporary, if they shall agree to go directly to the Indian Territory next season they shall be permitted to remain at the agency until that time, but before any such removal from their reservation they may select a delegation of five or more from each band to visit the country proposed for their future home, and thus satisfy themselves of its desirability.

Fifth—In consideration of their compliance with the foregoing propositions submitted by authority of the President and Congress it is proposed that the government of the United States shall provide all necessary aid to assist in the work of civilization, and shall furnish schools, teach them the mechanical and agricultural arts, and as provided by treaty, shall provide subsistence, consisting of rations to each individual of a pound and a half of beef, half pound of flour, half pound of corn, and for every hundred rations four pounds of coffee, eight pounds of sugar, three pounds of beans and ten pounds of pork or their equivalent, or so much of such rations as may be necessary until they are self-supporting, such rations in all cases to be given to the head of each family; and whenever the government shall have provided schools on their permanent reservation no children between six and fourteen shall draw rations until they regularly attend school—sick and infirm children excepted—and whenever said Indians are located upon lands suitable for cultivation, rations shall be issued only to families of those who labor, the aged, sick and infirm excepted, and as an incentive to industrious habits, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs may provide they shall be furnished in payment of their labor such other articles as are necessary for civilized life. The government will aid them as far as possible in finding a market for surplus productions and in finding employment, and shall purchase such surplus as may be required for supplying food to those Indians who are unable to sustain themselves, and shall also employ Indians as far as practicable in the performance of government work upon their reservations.

Sixth—Whenever the head of a family shall in good faith accept his allotment of land and engage in cultivation thereof the government shall with his aid erect a comfortable home thereon, and if said Indians shall remove to such place as may be designated by the government as their future home within three years the government offers to provide the principal chief a good dwelling.

Seventh—To improve the morals and industrious habits of said Indians it is agreed that the agent, farmer, carpenter, blacksmith and other artisans employed or permitted to reside on reservations belonging to Indians, parties to this treaty, shall be lawfully married and living with their respective families on said reservation, and no person other than an Indian of full blood whose fitness morally or otherwise is not conducive to the welfare of said Indians shall receive benefit from this or former treaties, or may be expelled from the reservation.

Eighth—The provisions of the treaty except as herein modified shall continue in full force and apply to any country which may hereafter be occupied by said Indians as a home, and Congress shall secure to them an orderly government. They shall be subject to the laws of the United States and each individual shall be protected in his rights of property and person.

Ninth—The Indians shall solemnly themselves individually and collectively observe each and all stipulations aforesaid, to select allotments as soon as possible after removal to permanent reservation and use their best efforts to learn to cultivate, and they do solemnly pledge themselves they will at all times maintain peace with the government and citizens of the United States and loyally endeavor to fulfill all obligations assumed by them under the treaty and present agreement, and to this end will at request of the President select so many suitable men from each tribe to co-operate with him in maintaining order and peace on the reservation as he may deem necessary, who shall receive such compensation as Congress may provide.

Tenth—In order that the government may faithfully carry out the stipulations contained in this agreement for the benefit of said Indians it is mutually agreed that a census shall be taken in December of each year and the names of each family and adult person registered.

No agreement concurred in by the contracting parties will be binding upon either party until approved by the President and Congress.

At conclusion of the reading of the propositions Bishop Whipple addressed the Indians at some length, followed by Col. Boone. The commission having announced to Red Cloud that rations for a feast would be issued he asked that it be given at once, and asked for six beeves, ten pounds sugar and five pounds coffee for each of the six bands present. The order was given and the council ended after the Indians being notified that the commission had no time to lose.

THE CENTENNIAL.

Reunion of California Pioneers in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA Sept 9—The reunion of Californians under the auspices of the Associated Pioneers of the Territorial days of California was celebrated to day at the Pacific coast Centennial Hall on the exhibition grounds and was one of the most enjoyable events of its kind in the annals of the Centennial. The day was the twenty sixth anniversary of the admission of California into the Union. An audience of 700 persons, mainly former residents of the Pacific slope, among whom were many ladies, thronged the fine large hall, which was gaily decked with national colors. Among the California pioneers present were Gen John A Sutter, Gen Hooker, Gov McCormick, Col Thorpe, H M Newhall, J K Hill, Capt Stevenson, Col H Fritz, Jas Curtis, Ex Chief San Francisco police James Nuttman, Edward Colter, J Leland, H Warwick, H B Hawkins, Jas Stewart, Ex Sheriff of Tulumne county, Chas Randall, formerly editor Sonora Democrat, and Rev Chas C Ames.

Gen Sutter being introduced by Gen Gibson was made president of the meeting. He made a few appropriate remarks.

Acknowledgements of invitation to the reunion were read from President Grant, Gen Sherman, Gen Jas W Revere, who raised the first flag at Sonoma, Philip Roach, Maj Gen Jas A Hardie, Bayard Taylor, who alluded to his last waltz with Gen Sutter at the ball in Monterey in 1849 on the occasion of the constitutional convention.

The orator of the day was Hon Rodman M Price, ex Gov of New Jersey, who at length reviewed the gold discoveries in 1848, the participation of pioneers from the East in the acquisition of the territorial government and rapid commercial and agricultural development of the State. The estimated product of gold and silver this year will be worth at least a hundred million dollars, her wheat crop [illegible] 000,000, with 10,000,000 gallons of wine, a dairy valued at $1,000,000 and a fruit product of $1,000,000. The speaker detailed the distinguished services to the country of many of the former associates of those present and associations and friendships of the early days of California.

The song of the Argonauts of the days of '49 was then sung by Geo A Conly, basso of the Kellogg opera troupe, to the air of "Auld Lang Syne," the audience heartily joining in the chorus.

Gen Hooker being loudly called for made a few remarks, and was succeeded by ex Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania, who seemed inspired by the spirit of the occasion. He had come, he remarked, out of curiosity to see the men who had built up an empire on the Pacific coast, paying at the same time an eloquent tribute to Gen Sutter, the man from the Alps, the home of Tell, the discovery of gold on whose acres had made a new cluster of states on the Pacific coast, changed the commerce of America and put forward the American Union fifty years. California had taken the best blood of the East in the rush of '49 and had brought the State into the Union full fledged. Alluding to the dazzling spectacle presented to the world by the Exhibition he said its crowning jewel was the good accomplished for the cause of humanity by one hundred years of liberty, and the fact that after discord, death and carnage a great people could come together in fraternity.

Colin N Boyd, President of the Associated Pioneers of California, followed with an allusion to the general observance of the day in California, from whence he said he had brought to their brethren in the East the hearty greeting of the pioneers on the golden shore. The latter felt although separated from them by a continent the pioneers of California in the East were just as much pioneers to day as they were in the golden days of '49.

After these exercises the audience adjourned to the Globe hotel but a short distance from the Centennial grounds. Precisely at the dinner hour, 4 o'clock, a large fire broke out among the side shows and restaurants in the vicinity, which for one or two hours endangered the safety of the hotel and caused the withdrawal of a number of the guests.

Governor Hartranft of Pennsylvania was present and indicated in his after dinner speech an approaching visit to California.

General Hooker in his remarks adverted to the madness of politicians seeking now to embitter different sections of the Union against each other.

Joaquin Miller being called upon made a speech the purport of which was not very clear save an invitation at the close to all present, to come and see his new play rendered in Oregon.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Maj Stevenson, manager of the Pacific Hall, for his courtesy and accommodation on this occasion.

Great Fire near the Exhibition Buildings.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9—At half past 4 this afternoon a fire broke out in Murphy's oyster saloon on Elm avenue opposite the main exhibition building and before extinguished communicated to and destroyed property to the value of about $80,000. The flames spread east, west and south consuming the entire lot of buildings on Elm avenue from the Trans continental Hotel to Ross House, about 20 in all, including several variety shows, beer gardens, restaurants, etc. These structures were all from one to two and three stories high. The fire spread back from Elm to Columbia avenue taking in all intervening property including the New England Hotel, a boarding house and ice cream saloon and restaurant, all two story buildings. The wildest excitement prevailed both in and outside the Centennial grounds; people flocked to the scene of the fire by thousands, and it is estimated that there were at least 60,000 people in immediate vicinity. The Transcontinental hotel caught fire on the roof four different times but the flames were immediately extinguished. So intense was the heat that it scorched the paint on the turnstiles at the entrance gate of the exhibition, requiring a stream to be played on them and upon the southern side of the main exhibition building. A man is in custody on suspicion of having caused the fire. The Ross House was damaged $20,000 and by the destruction of the New England House a loss of $15,000 was sustained. Individual losses range from $1 to $6,000.

Mr. Gladstone on the Eastern Question.

LONDON, Sept. 9—Mr Gladstone addressed a meeting of his constituents on Black Heath this evening on the Eastern question. The weather was unfavorable, a heavy rain falling, yet 12,000 people were present, and gave the ex prime minister an enthusiastic reception. Gladstone said throughout his experience he had never witnessed a movement to compare with that which had started up in the last two weeks throughout England concerning Turkish atrocities. Schuyler's report, coming from the representative of a nation the inhabitants of which we rejoice to call civilized, and furthermore whose personal character and trustworthiness he had taken pains to ascertain, had produced a most marked impression in his mind and convinced him he could no longer bear the responsibility of remaining silent. Gladstone then proceeded to show that the Turkish government was responsible for the atrocities. Resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting at Turkish atrocities were passed. Some considered that the resolutions did not express sufficient indignation.

Lord Derby will Explain.

Capture of Boss Tweed and his Secretary.

LONDON Sept 10—The Herald's special from Vigo states that on Wednesday the 6th inst, on the arrival of the Spanish bark Carmen at the quarantine harbor of San Simon, Vigo, from Santiago de Cuba, the Governor of Pont Evida boarded her. The Governor was accompanied by some of the secret police and inquired for two of the passengers. He ordered their detention and having consulted some photographs arrested them and sent them to Corunna, whence they will be transferred to Havana on the Spanish mail steamer leaving on the 21st. On their arrival in Havana they will be handed over to the American authorities. Their baggage has been seized and goes with them. It is believed here that the two prisoners are Wm M Tweed and his secretary.

MADRID Sept 10—It was found in July last that Tweed was in Santiago de Cuba, having passed there from Havana. Gen Jovellar was applied to by the American consul to have Tweed secured and sent to the United States. Gen Jovellar was quite willing, even in the absence of an extradition treaty, to oblige the American government in return for their courtesy in the Arguilla case some years ago. Tweed however, was apprized in Santiago of his impending danger and sailed for Vigo, Spain, July 27th, on the sailing vessel Carmen. Mr Cushing thereupon notified the Spanish government of the fact and found them willing to arrest Tweed and return him to Cuba or deliver him up to the American consul. Every precaution was taken by the Spanish government to secure Tweed's arrest in any part of Spain or on any coast line by which he might arrive. Severe orders were given by local authorities, and especially those of Vigo and the Galician coast. On Sept 6th the Carmen hove in sight off Vigo, and was immediately boarded by Morvera, of Pont Evila, the governor, who at once recognized Tweed from photographs which he had had in his possession for some time. Tweed was entered on the ship's papers under the name of Locox and accompanied by a man giving his name as Wm. Hunt, who is said to be his nephew. Both were at once secured and thrown in the calaboose under a strong guard but were subsequently transferred by order to a fortress in Vigo, under the command of the Captain General.

The Extradition of Tweed Requested.

MADRID Sept 10—The first secretary of the American legation has requested the extradition of Tweed and will consequently be handed over to the American authorities.

LONDON Sept 10—A special from Burgos to the Daily News says Mr Adee, charge d'affaires of the United States in the absence of Minister Cushing, visited the Spanish minister at La Granja and arranged for the surrender of Tweed to the American government.

Admission Day in California.

It had been given out that to-day would be a legal holiday and a proclamation to that effect had been drawn up and only awaited the Governor's signature. In the meantime it was suggested that in many parts of the State no knowledge of the fact could be received at so late an hour and that business might be seriously affected. It was therefore decided to suppress the proclamation. Consequently the banks, courts, stock boards, and other places of business will be open as usual during the morning. There is a general display of bunting about the city. The weather is all that could be wished for the regatta this afternoon, bright and warm with a fine breeze. Considerable interest is manifested in the the result of the race.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9—The festivities of the Pioneers at Badger's Park, Oakland were largely attended, and it was a very pleasant informal affair. Wm J Shaw delivered the oration, Frank Soule the poem and George T Bromley one of his inimitable humorous addresses. This evening the Territorial Pioneers assemble in Platt's Hall to listen to an oration by H Hosmer, and a poem by J. G Severance. Vocal and instrumental music will be interspersed throughout the exercises, and dancing will follow. The Native Sons of the Golden West observed the day by holding a social reunion at Damon's Grove, Saucelito, at which an address was delivered by the president of the organization, an oration by G D. Hall, and original poem by F G W. Finn. In accordance with general orders issued by Brig-General McComb the 1st, 2d and 3d regiments, 1st cavalry battalion, and company A light battery, were subjected to review at the intersection of Market street and Van Ness avenue at 2 o'clock this afternoon, which was followed by a short parade. The bay this afternoon presented a picturesque appearance, being dotted with yachts engaged in contests for prizes offered to vessels belonging to the San Francisco Yacht Club. There was a splendid breeze and a well contested race, the new yacht Consuelo, built by ex-Governor Pacheco and others, winning prizes.

City Finances: Treasury Exhausted.

The city treasury can hardly be said to be in a healthy condition just now. The street and school funds are completely run out, and the general fund, which had $78,000 in it at the end of August, is exhausted and has even been overdrawn upwards of $20,000. The personal property tax which has been paid up very fairly this year, is now nearly all in, and the only sources of consequence from which the treasury can derive any income until the real estate tax becomes due in January next are the licenses and fees of city and county officers, but this will not suffice to pay salaries, and holders of warrants will, many of them, have to get them discounted or wait nearly four months to get them cashed by the city. The low condition of the treasury is in a great measure due to the Legislature passing bills authorizing transfers from the general fund to other funds to meet deficiencies in the latter.

Trotting at Oakland Park.

The colt stake for 3 year olds, 3 in 5, to harness, was trotted for yesterday over the Oakland course. There were 11 nominations, the entrance being $100 each. Only three, however, put in an appearance—C S Crittenden's Gypsy Davis, Dennis Gannon's Isaac Davis and L J Rose's Daisy C. There was a fair attendance and the betting was spirited. The race was excellent. Isaac sold in pools for $50, Gypsy Davis, $35, and Daisy C for $30, a short time before the race. After the first heat however, Gypsy was favorite throughout the the contest and won in three straight heats in 2 47¼, 2 45 and 2 44. Isaac second. It was the best 3 year old race ever trotted in California and the best of the year anywhere.

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 10—In the trotting race at Oakland Park yesterday for two year olds, mile heats, two in three, Gracie C, Gazelle, Bella Davis, Cottage Boy and Haywood Colt were entered. The first heat was won by Gazelle in 2 53. The next two and race by Gracie in 2 55½ and 2 53½. A large and enthusiastic crowd was present and the time claimed to be the best ever made by two year olds outside of Kentucky. After the race a number of yearling colts were trotted around the track, Medora making the mile in 3 10, the others ranging from 3 26 to 4 04½.

STOCKTON Sept 10—About 1 P M to day a fight occurred in a Chinese gambling house. Two Chinamen were killed, one mortally wounded and two others seriously wounded. FAREWELL WORDS.

DALLAS, Aug 30, 1876.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Will you please publish in the columns of the OREGONIAN this short notice and valedictory to my many friends with whom I have been associated in church fellowship, and those whom it may concern?

By a strange chain of circumstances, after 45 years (over 25 years of which have been spent in the itinerant work), I find myself outside the Church of my early choice—the Methodist Episcopal Church. I have violated no law for which I have been convicted by trial, never have asked for a location, or withdrawn from the Church; yet, with nothing against my morals and in violation of law, my name has been stricken from the Conference roll—denied the right of appeal for redress. And now after waiting patiently for two years in the hope that the Conference would rectify the wrongs, I am again disappointed, for even a resolution expressive of regret for the Conference action by which the location occurred is thought to be out of order. Hence any and all propositions for reconciliation and membership have been withdrawn from the Conference, with nothing left me from the M. E. Church save my parchments of ordination, which I hold as a relic of the past. My services are said to be unacceptable to the M. E. Church, therefore they will not be offered.

And now, having a good conscience and faith in God I cast myself on his mercy and the intelligence of the public for the vindication of my conduct as to morals and ministry, thanking my many friends in the conference and elsewhere for their sympathy in these years of trial. Their memory we shall ever cherish in the future and hope to be guilty of no act which shall render us unworthy of their confidence, and of a quiet and peaceful home in heaven.

As to those who have taken part in this persecution let me say that I have no fellowship in the violation of law so as to accept a certificate of location or acknowledge the record right. They themselves have placed me beyond the watchcare of the church. Let them stand by their own acts. The Judge of all men will do right, in whose sight these lines are written in the view of a coming judgment. Yours respectfully,

J JAMES.

A SOFT DINNER.—Some of the hotels have bills of fare with a fly leaf covered with cards of various business houses. An Oregon man recently took a seat behind one of them when a waiter appeared with "What will you have, sir?" To the utter confusion of the waiter he leisurely remarked: "You may fetch me a new set of teeth, in gutta percha, an improved sewing machine with patent lock stitch, a box of Brandreth's pills and a pair of number seven French calf skin boots." In a moment the waiter replied, "We do not furnish those articles." "Then what have you got it on the bill of fare for?" retorted the customer.—N. Y. Tribune.

RETRENCHMENT NEEDED AT ALL POINTS.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

I fully agree with all that has been said in your paper concerning the necessity of [illegible] change being made in our system of [illegible] insane paupers, so as [illegible] the [illegible] which threatens to absorb the whole [illegible] of the State. And I would also include the penitentiary in the catalogue. That ought to be made self-supporting, or nearly so, and it can be made so. Some of the officers and employes can be dispensed with. The offices of superintendent and warden can be merged in that of warden with benefit to the [illegible], and expenses largely curtailed in [illegible] quarters. A principal trouble with the penitentiary management is that since Gov. [illegible] administration it has been in the in[illegible] of the party and administration in power. MONDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 11 1876

THE STATE PENITENTIARY

Superintendent Watkinds reports disbursements of the State Penitentiary during the two years since his last biennial report, $49,308 95 leaving on hand of the $50,000 appropriated by the last legislature $691 05 Of the amount expended $7,275 14 was applied in rebuilding shops and machinery destroyed by fire, and in paying off indebtedness contracted during the preceding term leaving as the actual expenses of carrying on the prison from 1874 to 1876 $42 03. 81

The number of prisoners on the first day of September 1874 was 113 There have been received since that time 97 Discharged during same period, 98 (of which 16 were pardoned) removed to insane asylum 2, escaped and still at large 3, died, 3 Number in prison, September 1, 1876, 104

The Superintendent credits the institution with the following items for productive labor of convicts

Cash paid State Treasurer	$10 322 85
Bills and accounts receivable for convict labor sales of brick etc and keeping U. S. prisoners	7 735 08
Convict labor and brick turned over to Capitol Commissioners	11 994 87
Convict labor on shops and grounds of the Penitentiary	469 00
	$37,521 80

The items of convict labor are computed at 50 cents per day to the hand, which is the minimum price at which the Superintendent is allowed to let the convict labor to private individuals

According to this showing the Prison is almost a self-sustaining institution Mr Watkinds, by deducting the $37,521 80 credits from the $49,308 95 expenditures, arrives at the conclusion that the net cost of running the institution for the two years has been $11,787 15 But the characteristic modesty of the Superintendent is illustrated in the fact that he omitted to deduct another important item, which should have been deducted in order to make a correct statement of the actual running expenses, and which just before he had mentioned—namely, the $7 275 14 put into betterments of the institution and payment of old debts Deducting this, as well as the income, and the running expenses would appear to be reduced to $4,512 01. It seems a pity the Superintendent did not have some of those industrious convicts work out that odd cent, so as to be able to express the net result in round numbers! It would have been the [illegible] thing imaginable

Of course these charges for convict labor in and upon the penitentiary buildings and grounds, can never be either impeached or verified by inspection of the work, for no one can tell by such inspection whether a given piece of work cost [illegible] ten days or fifty days of the convicts' time. Nor is it impossible that a larger or less per centage of the money [illegible] into the Treasury to the credit may have been the product of labor with [illegible] the management had been credited in the [illegible] account The presumption, however, ought to be to the contrary The Superintendent expresses the opinion that with careful management he will be able to run the institution during the [illegible] two years on an appropriation of $40,000. That is certainly better for the people than $50,000 And then if the Superintendent will only devise some way to make the vast income of the prison a [illegible] quantity instead of a mere entry on the books of the concern, the people will get most of their $40,000 back There is room, however, to fear that these credit items will never be seen anywhere except on the Superintendent's book

THE DEAF MUTE SCHOOL

From the Report of Rev. P S Knight, Principal of the Oregon Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, we condense the following: The number of pupils admitted since the establishment of the institution in 1870, is 36 Of these, 21 are males and 15 females. Fifteen have been deaf from birth, and twenty-one have lost the sense of hearing through sickness No death has occurred in the institution since its establishment. It is stated on the best information obtainable that there are about 30 mutes in the State who have not been placed in the institution

During the past year little progress has been made in the way of education, by reason of an epidemic of typhoid fever, which prostrated a large number of the pupils, and, at last, the Matron The Principal is satisfied the prevalence of typhoid in the institution was not attributable to any local cause or want of proper sanitary arrangements At the same time that it appeared in the institution it prevailed very generally in that part of the State, and many cases in the region round about proved fatal

The report of Hon H. H Gilfry, financial agent, accompanying the Principal's Report, shows the total amount of funds received from all sources during the two years past $10,135 13, of which only $135 00 has been received from the parents of the pupils The disbursements during the same period have been $10 154 42 leaving in the hands of the Board only 71 cents Owing to the expenses incident to the extraordinary amount of sickness in the institution the appropriation was exhausted and liabilities incurred which remain unpaid to the amount of $226 14 There is also a deficiency carried forward from the year 1874, of $[illegible] The institution has been managed with strict economy in every respect, and the efficiency of the work done by those in charge for the unfortunate class for whom it was founded is vouched for by all who have visited it Touching the general condition and position of the institution the Principal says

> As to the future if I may be permitted to offer a few suggestions our great want is a foundation We need permanent grounds permanent buildings permanent legal regulations and some kind of assurances of a permanent support For six years our school has been merely an experiment Provided for in the first place by a simple joint resolution depending for its existence ever since on temporary legislative action and thrown for its management as an extra burden on the hands of State officers it has been from the beginning on the verge of doubts and uncertainties It is time we think for our experiment to ripen into something definite It is time for us to be lending, as a State which kind of permanent provision shall be made for that needy and deserving class of persons whose peculiar condition renders it impossible for them to enjoy the means of education provided for those possessed of all their faculties We have among us at present as a people and doubtless shall continue to have in future our average proportion of that class of persons called mutes—about one to every thousand or twelve hundred of population If we educate them they will be self supporting and helpful members of society If we suffer them to remain in ignorance many of them will become indigent and burdensome It requires no argument to show which is the better policy even from a financial point of view to say nothing of the moral and sociological bearings of the subject The only questions that can arise in the minds of thoughtful citizens of our young commonwealth touching the matter are questions as to how the necessary provisions shall be made It is to be sincerely hoped that the appointed custodians of the public welfare will promptly face these questions and that such enlightened and harmonious executive and legislative action may be brought about as shall place the Oregon Institution for the Deaf and Dumb on sure foundations

A VIGOROUS PUB DOC

Perhaps the greatest curiosity extant in the way of official literature, is the report of W H Watkinds superintendent of the State Penitentiary After disposing of the matters ordinarily found in such documents, such as statistics statement of the condition of the institution, etc he proceeds with the most Watkindslike directness to ask the legislature to give him an honest examining committee this year, as he "wants nothing to do with such men as J N Dolph and T McF Patton," the latter of whom he analyzes in the "Oregon style" Next he challenges his enemies to find a dollar or cent misappropriated by him and proposes to pay $10,000 for the detection of anything wrong in his management of the prison From this remarkable invitation to the legislature to scrutinize his work closely, he passes to a discussion of the propriety of changing the plan on which the penitentiary is conducted And deeming it proper to assign some reason for entering into this subject, does so in the following paragraph

> I mention this because there were three bills before the last legislature, praying that honorable body to change the law governing the State penitentiary not that they could show any dishonesty or extravagance in its management but simply to gratify a certain coterie of dishonest and corrupt politicians, who, at different times while the measures were pending offered to have the bills defeated if I would pay them $1,000

MR. TILDEN'S INCOME

We have heretofore given the amount of income on which Mr Tilden paid taxes for 1862 We now give the statement from the New York Times of the whole of his income showing the amount he concealed

Fees from Terre Haute railroad	$20 000
Dividends and interest	13 000
Cumberland Coal and Iron Company	5 000
Total	$38 000
Deduct expenses taxes etc	6,552
Net proved income	$31 448
Net income stated under oath	7 118
Income fraudulently concealed	$24,330

We need hardly say that the case against Mr Tilden when it comes to be fully investigated, will prove very much stronger than this. A man who made five millions of dollars in fifteen years must have reckoned his annual income by hundreds of thousands

During the ten years from 1862 to 1872 Mr. Tilden made no return of his income He paid tax during all these years on an average income, penalty included, of only $15,000 It is perfectly clear that Mr Tilden, during the ten years in which he was accumulating the largest part of his enormous fortune, must have had an income more than ten times as great as that on which he paid tax

To these grave accusations of perjury and fraud there has been given but one reply It is that the $20 000 received from the Terre Haute railroad in 1862 represented the earnings of several years, and was therefore not all chargeable to the income of that year The answer totally fails to meet the case 1 Because half the fee was actually earned in 1862, 2 Because there were half a dozen similar fees received in 1862 of which the Cumberland Coal Company's was one and 3 Because the law has been clearly and repeatedly declared to be—by Judge Blatchford among others so lately as March last—that the taxable income of a given year is represented by the money actually received in that year, no matter when it was earned

The latest news from Charleston gives a very different account of the origin of the late riot in that city from that at first received It seemed incomprehensible that a troop of militia quietly marching through the streets should without provocation open fire upon the inmates of a building they were passing Nor was it true It now appears that the Republicans were holding a political meeting and that the Democrats wanted to have half their time for joint discussion. This the Republicans refused to allow as was their perfect right and the Democrats tried to break up the meeting by firing upon the negroes. The negroes determined to stand up for their rights and hence the fight This account is probably the true one, and if so the blame for the disgraceful occurrence rests on the shoulders of the Democrats and goes very far to demonstrate the necessity for the order issued by the Attorney General

The charge against Tilden in connection with his income grows stronger as the facts come to light, while the counter charge against Hayes melts away under investigation The press of the East is treating Mr Tilden's case as a matter too serious to be overlooked and the more it is probed the more rottenness is disclosed We publish this morning the figures which show that the truth is far worse than at first supposed, leaving nothing more to be said on the subject Tilden the model reformer and impersonation of political integrity turns out to be a defrauder of the revenue!

A Brooklyn scientist has made a wonderful discovery which temperance lecturers should take advantage of It is that rabies is identical with delirium tremens and that hydrophobia is a legitimate result of intemperance in the use of ardent spirits It may puzzle many to know where the unhappy canine gets his diurnal drams and how he contracts the habit of intoxication It is explained that dogs do not drink ardent spirits but that whenever a dog bites a drunkard he immediately becomes rabid

The Jersey City Abattoir Company are so well satisfied with their experiments, made some time ago, of sending slaughtered beef to England that they intend to send another lot The beef sent by them fetched high profit in the English market while selling [illegible] per cent lower than the home article At first the English seemed reluctant to buy the American beef but its low price and good quality caused them to overcome their prejudice and it is now in great and increasing demand

A Republican meeting was violently interrupted by Democratic roughs in Baltimore the other day This is a blazing up of the [illegible] long used secession embers As long as this sort of proceeding is possible in Baltimore it is not wise to entrust the government to the Democracy Should the government pass into their hands it is very likely that the old reign of terror when a Northern man could not express his sentiments would be revived

The largest attendance at the London Exhibition of 1851 was 109 915 The largest attendance at the Centennial Exhibition thus far has been 112 000 Comparing the population of London 3 700 000 with that of Philadelphia 750 000 it will be seen that in this respect at least the Centennial Exhibition is a grand success Moreover it is probable that as the weather moderates the attendance will increase

One [illegible] G A [illegible] would have won for himself great credit and renown for preventing a terrible railway accident had it not been discovered that he tore up the rails and then warned the engineer of the approaching train in order to make himself a hero and induce the company to give him a situation Instead of getting a position on the railway he is likely to get one in the State penitentiary

A religious paper in Buffalo has a tolerably severe diatribe against Prof Huxley the molecule philosopher Perhaps the editor of that paper would do well to remember the advice of Gamaliel to the Jews and leave off his abuse

CITY.

Passengers.—The steamship John L. Stephens sailed from San Francisco for Portland last Saturday forenoon, bringing a full freight list, and the following passengers: Major J. Stewart, U. S. A., wife, six children and two servants, Ben. Selling, A. Meier, L. G. Kline, Dr. , J. D. Darling, General G. Adams, J. L. Rowe, J. D. Darling, N. W. Tallant, A. Bloomfield, J. H. Lewis, N. W. Tallant, A. Bloomfield, Miss M. T. Sheridan, Mrs. C. Moldman, Miss , Mrs. Manheim, Mrs. A. C. Abbott, A. , H. Sternberg, J. Kohn, W. Harris, T. , A. Beck and son, S. Julius May- , and family, Mrs. D. M. Moore and three children, L. Laughlin and wife, Mrs. Dr. , Kelly and daughter, Miss L. Browne, O. Browne and wife, W. E. Hendley, Hughes, Ed. Painter, H. Tingles and family, G. R. Pottorf and wife, J. H. Hinkle and wife, A. D. Rogers and wife, Mrs. G. E. and two children, O. S. Allen and family, W. N. Bennett, S. Sanders.

Catholic Church, East Portland.—It is expected that the work on the East Portland church will be finished so that it can be dedicated on the 24th inst. The auditorium is about 25 by 50 feet, with a ceiling of fine proportion. The altar is beautifully carved and painted, and when carpeted will present a handsome appearance, quite complimentary to the taste of the ladies who have undertaken the decoration of the altar. The gallery is well arranged. The pews in the auditorium will seat from 125 to 175 persons. In the rear of the vestry are two rooms and on the second floor are three rooms, which are to be furnished for a pastoral residence. The entire cost of the church when furnished will be about $3,000. The ceremonies are looked forward to with interest by the Catholics of East Portland.

Stealing Clothes.—Officer O'Hara was informed about 10 o'clock Saturday night that two men were in the Cornucopia Saloon endeavoring to dispose of some clothes. O'Hara went to the room and found the two men in question trying to sell eight pair of trowsers. They were arrested at once and taken to jail. They gave their names as John Collins and J. McMann alias John Walker. It appears that the pairs of trowsers mentioned were taken from the store of Mier & Frank, on Front street, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, but not missed until much later. Learning of the arrest of these parties, Messrs. Mier & Frank came to the police court and claimed the goods. The defendants will have an examination this morning.

On a Furlough.—Mr. Daniel O'Neill, who has been acting for several years as purser on the steamer , between Portland and , is now rusticating in the mountains. He has left his books and papers, and is roaming over the hills in quest of antlered game or whipping the stream for the sportive trout. After spending several weeks in this kind of recreation, Mr. O'Neill will start on a tour in search of health and pleasure. He will be absent a month or six weeks. Mr. O'Neill is one of the most efficient and accommodating officers in the employ of the O. S. N. Company, and his friends are counted by the score. During his absence, Mr. Noyes will officiate as purser on the .

Cruelty to Horses.—Our attention has been frequently called to the brutal, treatment to which horses that are used to draw dirt carts about the city are hourly subjected. In referring to the matter, a cotemporary truthfully says: "The inhuman manner in which horses are used and treated in the dirt carts is deserving of much censure, and if there is any law for those who are guilty of allowing cruelty to their animals, then it is time it should be. Some of these poor animals are nearly half-starved; are crippled and lame, and heartless boys delight in running them through the streets with loads that many sound horses would stagger under."

[illegible].—The bark Garibaldi has been purchased by the firm of Corbitt & Macleay. Terms private. Capt. Forbes, formerly in command of the Mattie Macleay, and later of the Edward James, has been offered by his old employers the command of the Garibaldi and has accepted the position. Capt. Forbes is an experienced and careful master, and will no doubt make good and successful voyages with his vessel. The destination of the Garibaldi is undecided, but there is a probability of her loading for China or Australia.

[illegible].—Cutting a watermelon led a man to the destruction of a [illegible] by a San Francisco commercial traveler Saturday. He was so interested in that he failed to observe a number of [illegible] on the sidewalk. He [illegible] smashed three in his effort to regain his equilibrum kicked a fourth with his feet, which shared the fate of the others, and so on. The unlucky "tourist," [illegible] went forward and liquidated, enjoying the fun in the same spirit as those who [illegible].

Telegraph Line.—We learn that a telegraph line is to be built between Roseburg and [illegible] City. The wire, material, etc., is to arrive in a short time. Work will be commenced soon and the new line is to be finished by the 1st of October. Coos Bay is thus to be brought into communication with the outside world. The new line will be of no small importance in a commercial point of view as well as of public convenience.

Burglary.—Some time during Saturday night the bookstore of S. J. McCormick, on First street, was entered by burglars. They effected an entrance to the store from the rear. A window pane was broken and the sash hoisted, through which the burglars entered the building. The only thing they got was a pistol, a dollar greenback and some postal currency. It was a "water haul," and they left in disgust. No clue.

Sounding the Channel.—For the past week, Capt. Fisher, Capt. Reed, Capt. Gilman, Capt. Hoyt and Capt. Snow, the well known river pilots, have been engaged in taking soundings along the lower Columbia, to ascertain the exact depth of the channel at St. Helens, the Hog's back, and other points. The little steamer Kalala was chartered to convey the pilots from place to place.

Gauging the River.—Mr. Habersham will go up the river this morning, accompanied by a party, for the purpose of "gauging" the stream, the object being to determine the amount of water which flows down the Columbia at a certain point at a given time. The river will be "gauged" at a number of points. The party will be absent some time.

The Foot Race.—Quite a crowd was present Saturday afternoon at the South Portland Race Park to witness the foot race which came off there, between B. P. Collins, R. H. Thompson and James Day. The distance was 100 yards, $150 sweepstakes. The race was won by Thompson, he distancing his competitors by ten feet. Time, 7½ seconds.

Committee on Speakers.—Last Saturday evening at the meeting of the Hayes and Wheeler Club at Oro Fino Theater, the following gentlemen were selected as a committee to make arrangements for securing speakers to address the club during the campaign: H. D. Sanborn, Dr. Wm. H. Watkins and Dr. J. R. Cardwell.

On motion the club adjourned until next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

MEETING OF FRUIT GROWERS.

A meeting of fruit growers and others was held in the council chamber of the city of Portland on Saturday, Sept. 9, 1876, at 1 o'clock P. M., to devise ways and means for sending specimens of Oregon fruit to the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia.

Gov. A. C. Gibbs was elected chairman and P. W. Gillette, secretary of the meeting.

After considerable discussion, it was moved and carried that a finance committee be appointed to solicit subscriptions of money to defray the expenses of packing and shipping samples of fruit to Philadelphia, whereupon the following gentlemen were chosen: P. W. Gillette, H. Prettyman and Joseph Buchtel.

On motion, three other gentlemen were added to this committee, as follows: J. D. Hunsaker, of Oregon City; J. G. Wright, of Salem, and Watson, of the Dalles.

A receiving and forwarding committee was then chosen, as follows: H. Miller, D. J. Malarkey and Hanson, whose duty it shall be to receive, pack and ship all specimens of fruit received by them.

The following resolution was then adopted: Resolved, That the fruit growers of Oregon are earnestly requested to send specimens of their fruit to the receiving and forwarding committee in this city, to be sent to the Centennial Exposition.

The convention then instructed the receiving and forwarding committee to pack and ship samples received as they deem advisable and to give the name of each producer.

Also instructed the committee, that in case more samples were received than it might be considered advisable to send that such surplus be sold and the proceeds thereof be put in the expense fund.

The same committee was further instructed to solicit specimens of fruit from the fruit growers throughout the State, by letter or otherwise.

On motion, the Oregonian, Willamette Farmer and other newspapers of Oregon are requested to publish the proceedings of this convention.

The convention then adjourned, to meet again in the council chamber on Saturday, Sept. 16. P. W. GILLETTE, Secretary.

The Minstrels.—Crowded houses greeted the Georgia Minstrels on their reappearance at New Market Theater Saturday afternoon and evening. Both performances gave satisfaction, and the season closes successfully financially. This morning the company will start Soundward. They will appear at the principal points and then sail for San Francisco.

Resigned.—Francis Kennedy, Constable of North Portland precinct, has tendered his resignation, to take effect as soon as his successor can be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners.

Men, says Adam Smith, are naturally unsentimental. A man will scoop the bottom out of an egg without thinking that the mother of that egg is, perhaps, a hundred miles away, in the rain. Every man, however, is thinking about dropping in at Beck & Waldman's, and ordering a new fall suit.

THE SCIO ROBBERY.

A correspondent writing to the Albany Democrat under date of the 8th, furnishes the following particulars of the recent robbery in that town:

The burglars, it is thought, commenced operations about midnight, effecting an entrance into Irvine & Morris' store and cutting through the lock of their safe—a Tilton & McFarland—taking therefrom about $550. In cutting they injured the firm's books but did not apparently inspect them or any of the papers contained in the safe, their only wants being coin.

D. P. Mason's store was next visited and his safe—a Hall Fire Proof—was opened by the combination knob being knocked off and the lock pried off with a punch, when the doors opened and revealed to view the sum of $800, which they quietly pocketed. The greater portion of this amount belonged to citizens of the place, who had deposited it for safe-keeping with Mr. Mason. By this robbery Mr. Alexander loses $500; City of Scio, $90 10; P. Smith, $12 75; John Gaines, $15; W. C. Miller, $25 75; Charles Miller, $28 50; Smith & Brown, $24 50, and others lose small amounts.

Brown, Johnson & Co.'s store was next entered and their safe entered by cutting two holes in the front and prying it open with a pick. From this last effort the burglars realized but $55.

Mr. Morrow's tin store was the next establishment visted, but for some reason the safe was unmolested.

Mr. Jones, the postmaster, was next visited, and he knows that visit, since it cost him $20.

Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Donnakue lost horses by these cusses, the former one and the latter two, but they had the good luck to recover one each, they having been abandoned a short distance out of town for two better nags belonging to Mr. Darley.

SOME GOOD ADVICE FROM AN "OLD FARMER."

AUBURN, Sept. 9, 1876.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

From the inauguration of President Washington down to the commencement of Gen. Jackson's first term, there had been less than 75 executive appointees dismissed from office. But in the first year of Jackson's incumbency he removed 2,000 persons, embracing individuals who had received appointments in the public service at the hands of each of his predecessors. He thus inaugurated a political party practice before unknown in the administration of the government. The direct effect of this arbitrary exercise of power, backed by the intrigues of the caucus system then practiced only by the new Democratic party, was to impair the efficiency and corrupt the civil service of the government. The persistent course of the President to make these practices a part of the Democratic creed, brought forth from one of his prominent friends a protest in the following words: "If this practice is to obtain, our republic henceforth will be governed by factions, and the struggle will be, who shall get the offices and their emoluments—a struggle embittered by the most base and sordid passions of the human heart." The Democratic party forty years ago, with General Jackson in the Presidential chair and his nominee, Martin Van Buren, making the canvass for the successorship, had then fully reached the zenith of its power. The chief labor of the leaders of the old Whig party at that day, was directed against the encroachments of the executive branch of the Government and in opposition to corruption and all innovations for mere personal and party aggrandizement. As a party, at that time, it opposed the caucus system as being only corrupt in its tendencies. This old party when it died, unlike its rival, left but little for its surviving members to regret and nothing to disown in its history. It had the good fortune of embracing the greatest number of able men who ever figured at one time on the stage of American politics—statesmen of whom America may well be proud and posterity seek lessons of virtue, knowledge and patriotism at their tombs. But it was not reserved for either of those old parties, as such, to advocate that other self-evident truth drawn from the Declaration of Independence, that there could not be any property in men, that all should have equal rights before the law.

In the Presidential campaign of 1872, mainly through the combined action of a number of editors of influenfol papers, a journalist, Hon. Horace Greeley, a Liberal Republican, was nominated for the Presidency. He had during a long and eventual life as a journalist, both as a Whig and Republican, been an open, manly opponent of the Democratic party, and no Whig nor Republican of his time had been more soundly abused and feared by Democrats than the great editor of the New York Tribune. Yet this old defunct Democratic party, after having thrown itself to pieces in battling against the most sacred rights of humanity, under the lead of such men as Jesse D. Bright and Thomas A. Hendricks of Indiana, until its fragmentary forces were so loaded down with guilt and shame that in the last Presidential canvass it dare not own its name, and actually sought to free itself from shame and guilt as Aaron had the iniquities of the children of Israel, by heaping them upon the head of an innocent scape-goat. These chivalrous Democrats who had never bent the servile knee at the behest of a "freedom-shrieker," were now to experince a very miraculous change of heart, yea verily, in the twinkling of an eye, they were in mass delivered from the self-loathing bondage of secesh Democracy, into the glorious liberty of Black Liberal Republicanism. And there they were, kneeling at the feet of their newly-found love, expecting soon to fare sumptuously every day upon the crumbs that were to fall from their master's table. But alas! these high hopes, founded at best upon the perishable basis of duplicity, were never to be realized.

The Democratic party, after having undergone the most humiliating experience, is nevertheless at heart the same old party to-day that it was prior to its ignominious death and resurrection. While too many trusted members of the Republican party, through their inordinate love of gain, have brought disgrace upon themselves and shame upon their country, yet as a party, acting upon all great questions which have agitated the public mind since the beginning of James Buchanan's administration, its action in general has been vindicated by the lapse of time. Upon the other hand, the Democratic party as such, during the same period, has left to posterity nothing but a dark record of treasonable disgrace and inhumanity to man. It is scarcely probable that the American people, in view of the facts that have transpired from the organization of the Territory of Kansas down to the adjournment of the late Congress, will feel prepared to trust their Government into the keeping of the very same organized body of men who so lately employed every available means at their command to destroy our unity as a nation. No political party that has ever figured upon the stage of American politics has sunk so low, and it is devoutly to be hoped there never may be another that will sink so low in the scale of patriotism and moral obligation to the country, as has modern Democracy. It is a patent fact that to-day it embraces within its fold the entire sympathizing rebel faction of the old free States—the most mischievous enemy with which the Union in the late rebellion had to contend. Now we find them seeking the most exalted positions known to our government as models of political virtue and reform. Will the American people accept the public services of these obsequious sympathizers? In gratitude to those who preserved the glorious Union bequeathed by our revolutionary fathers, it is to be hoped they will not.

The most effectual means at the command of our people for keeping pure the civil service of the country—guaranteeing efficiency, economy and good government, is lodged in the primary ballot. Cultivate that true courage and independence which will enable you to vote for no man unless you believe him to be capable and honest, and never for a candidate who has been weighed in the balance and found wanting, is the deliberate advice of an

Why Run any Risk with your Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, or indeed any Pulmonary or Bronchial Complaint, when a remedy safe, thorough, and so easily obtainable as Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant can be had? If you have contracted a severe Cold, save your Lungs from the dangerous irritation and inflammation, which frequently brings about Consumption, by promptly resorting to the Expectorant; and if troubled with any Affection of the Throat, you will find this remedy equally effectual in affording relief from obstructing phlegm, and in healing the inflamed parts.

THE COMING STATE FAIR.

MAKE IT THE GREAT EVENT OF THE YEAR.

PORTLAND, Sept. 9, 1876.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

The gigantic preparations made to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of American Independence at Philadelphia, suggest to us to make greater exertions than ever before so that our State Fair, in every particular and feature, may be a grand triumph worthy the Centennial occasion. But few of our citizens are able for want of time to make the journey across the continent to join in the general rejoicing of forty millions of free and independent people in the sunrise father-land, to behold the wonders and triumphs of a century, as evidences of our country's greatness and prosperity, as some of the results of our nation's boast, free thought, free speech, free press, and last but by no means least free schools. Our Centennial must remain an eventful period of our country's history. Then let the coming State Fair at Salem, Oregon beginning on the 9th of October, be an occasion of general rejoicing, a sweeping holiday, a week of sport and merrymaking, commemorativ of the rise and progress of our country.

It may be well to state that the managers have spared no pains nor expense to provide for the pleasure and comfort of all who may attend. A new mechanics' hall for the exhibition of home industries, a long line of new fencing, and new stalls for the accommodation of animals, a large grand stand, various improvements on the race track, together with an entire renovation and rearrangement and decoration of the pavilion. Also the introduction of the purest water, at a cost of over $6,000, for the convenience of the track and grounds. These, with many other new improvements, it is hoped, will contribute to the pleasure and comfort of all who may attend—to behold how sumptuously the Germans, with their mammoth eating establishment, can cater to the entire satisfaction of the public taste. Our hand and show bills may be expected soon. W. P. W.

FURTHER SUGGESTIONS TO THE LEGISLATURE.

PORTLAND, Sept. 8, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I did think I should make some further suggestions to the legislature in regard to railroad legislation, but as that body, no doubt, will do all in their power to devise some means by which the people of Oregon will be benefited in that respect, and as my time is considerably occupied with other matters, I will pass on to other subjects which I deem of importance to the people. And first as to legislation in respect to married women, though I do not wish to be understood now to be attempting to introduce female suffrage, for I am not prepared to say that I even think the right to vote would be beneficial to women, neither do I wish to take issue at present with any person on either side of the question, or discuss it at all; but that that our laws could be so amended in respect to married women that not only the women themselves but our entire community would be the gainer, I have no doubt. We must remember that the time was when a married woman had no identity, she could neither sue nor be sued, neither purchase nor hold property except through some other person; but as the civilized world became more and more enlightened, and as year by year old fogyism gave way to wisdom and advancement, courts became convinced that it was wise and beneficial to allow a married woman to hold a separate estate, and consequently she must have some power over that estate to charge it with indebtedness; but that power, for the benefit of the married woman and for the benefit of the merchant, mechanic and laboring man, is yet too limited.

Our statute § 30, General Laws of Oregon, provides "that when a married woman is a party, her husband shall be joined with her, except that: when the action affects her separate property, she may sue alone." Now, I would suggest that that clause be amended so as to read something like this: "When the action affects her separate property, or is for a tort to her person or property, or for wages earned by her either on expressed or implied contract, she may sue alone."

While on this topic, I would further suggest the importance of amending § 2 of Title 1, chap. VI. so as to allow a married woman, if she is the owner of any real property, to convey the same without joining her husband with her in the deed. That idea of joining the husband with the wife in the conveyance of her property is cumbersome, inconvenient and of no use or protection whatever, no profit to the community, and should be repealed.

And whilst on that subject allow me to call attention to our statute on the subject of dower and the courtesy which gives the wife one-third of her husband's real estate at his death for her life and gives the husband the whole of the wife's real estate at her death for his life. I would blot both of these propositions from the statute books. They are almost the last relics of barbarism, and have been clung too by old fogy for full fifty years too long. We are far behind the age in these matters. But I have neither time nor space to enter into the [illegible] why our laws should be [illegible] I think the reasons [illegible] and need no argument.

The further [illegible] may not be out of [illegible]. Why not allow a society of women, [illegible] for charitable, benevolent or other [illegible] and laudable purposes, to hold real estate for the benefit of the institution without the intervention of trustees who wear the un-[illegible]

[illegible] Further, why not enact a homestead law, as they have in all enlightened "American" [illegible]

Why not allow a defendant in a criminal [illegible] to testify as well as in a civil action? It would certainly in many instances bring out the truth and prevent injustice.

[illegible], why not make the official undertaking of a justice of the peace compel him to faithfully execute the duties of his office as well as to "pay over according to law all moneys that shall come into his hands by virtue of such office?" The bonds of our justices of the peace are no protection to any person who may be so unfortunate as to fall in to their clutches. What is the consequence of the insignificant sum of money coming into the hands of the justice by virtue of his office? It is the people's liberties and freedom that need protection; and I will say here that glaring and flagrant outrages have been perpetrated by justices of the peace who are utterly impecunious, and their official bond afford no protection. I say that every officer's official bond should be responsible for the damages resulting from every official act; and if it cannot be so, we had better wipe out all the justices of the peace in the State and do our business in the county courts. I therefore urge upon the legislature some action in that matter, as absolutely necessary for the convenience and comfort of the community, but also for the protection of their property and liberty.

And now for another section of our law that needs amending: Section 110 of the general laws provides, "that the earnings of a judgment debtor for personal services at any time within thirty days next preceding the judgment against a garnishee, shall not be included in such judgment, when it shall be made to appear by affidavit of the judgment debtor or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of a family, supported wholly or in part by his labor. Now that section is inoperative and ineffective and does not answer the purpose for which it was intended. Unconscionable [illegible] daily avoid it, by serving their garnishee notice and waiting more than thirty days to take their judgment against the garnishee instead of the words, "judgment against a garnishee," to be of any utility, protection or benefit to the poor, laboring man whose family the Legislature intended to protect in the absolute necessities of life, it should read, next preceding the service of notice of garnishment on the garnishee. That statute as it stands is a fraud, a blind and a sham, and if not intended to protect the family of the poor laboring man with the means of living, it should be wiped out, and let the poor man understand at once that his wife and children, as of old at the common law, are at the mercy of the hard-hearted creditor.

One more suggestion and I will close. By all means amend our assessment laws, so that church property and private schools will be compelled to pay their just proportion of taxes. There is no reason that I can conceive of why the immense wealth embodied in churches and private schools should be exempt from taxation. I know that this proposition will meet with opposition from some fanatics, but I maintain that it is just, and that all should fare alike in the matter of taxation. Yours, etc., O. P. M.

Few persons who have eaten the celebrated Roquefort cheese know that it is made from the milk of sheep; yet this is the case. The plateau of Larzac, having an elevation of 2 250 feet, furnishes pasturage for the 200,000 ewes necessary to carry on this industry. The pasture occupies an extent of 60 square leagues on which the sheep graze from April to December. One man milks about 30 ewes twice each day. May and June are the months of largest production. Shearing lessens considerably the supply of milk. The amount of milk taken at one time varies from one pint to three quarts per head, while the cheeses produced annually average from seventeen to twenty pounds each. Since the milk of the sheep contains nearly twice as much butter and casein as that of the cow, it seems strange that it is not utilized to a greater extent in other countries. If sheep can be made to produce from four to six quarts of rich milk per day, they would certainly be much more profitable, in some of our mountainous region, than cows.

From the Guard: Lots will be drawn by the county court October 2d, from among the number who passed the examination by the county superintendent for seven free scholarships in the State University.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.

600,000 Acres in

EASTERN OREGON!

For Farming and Grazing Purposes.

THESE LANDS ARE SITUATED IN WASCO, Grant and Baker counties, and are offered for sale in such sized tracts, not less than 160 acres, as purchasers may desire. Here is afforded a most favorable opportunity to immigrants and settlers seeking homes and low priced land to acquire both on the most reasonable terms. These lands are excellent for farming and grazing. On most of the tracts no grubbing, or other preparation of the land for plowing is requisite. A growth of nutritious grass covers the uplands affording the best of pasturage, while in the valleys and bottom lands the grass can be mowed and made into hay. Living springs and streams water the lands in various directions. The uplands, or rolling lands, can be put into crops with the most satisfactory return. Fruit, particularly peaches, plums, grapes, apples, pears and cherries as well as the smaller fruits, can be grown in great abundance. The Climate of Eastern Oregon is very healthful. Flourishing towns are located at convenient points for trade; the mails are regularly conveyed throughout that section and a prosperous population is already established, occupied in farming, stock growing, mining, and various other pursuits.

Terms $1 25 per acre and upwards according to quality and quantity. Interest ten per cent, on deferred payments.

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

946 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.
